Apply for a payment (family law)

How to apply

Follow the instructions on this form to apply for a super payment following the breakdown of a marriage or de facto relationship.

1 Obtain a valuation of the super account

Get information to value the superannuation. To do this, you must provide us a Request family law information form, which combines the following two family law forms:

- a Form 6 Declaration. This confirms you are entitled to get information about the super account for this limited purpose, and
- a Superannuation information request form.

To get a Request family law information form:

- go to australiansuper.com/forms or
- call 1300 300 273 to have a copy sent to you.

2 Decide how you will split super

Prepare a formal written agreement or obtain a consent or court order, stating how super will be split. You can do this in a number of ways:

- prepare a formal written agreement with the help of a lawyer. The agreement must be accompanied by a signed certificate, stating both you and your former partner have taken independent legal advice about the agreement, or
- seek a consent order to split super. If you and your former partner have reached an agreement from the outset, you can file an application for consent orders in the Family Court, accompanied by a consent order recording the agreement. The orders can be made in chambers without either of you needing to go to court, or
- if you can't reach an agreement with your former partner, you will need to file an application for a court order.
 Family law registry staff can tell you what forms you need to file. Even when an application is made to a court, it is possible to reach an agreement at any stage without the need for a court hearing.

3 Notify AustralianSuper

If you've reached a formal agreement you should submit a draft copy of the agreement to the Trustee for review.

If you're seeking court orders about super, you must tell us in writing and provide a draft copy of the proposed orders to the Trustee for review. As the super Trustee, we can attend any court hearing and object to any orders if we consider them to be unfair. This is called 'procedural fairness'.

4 Apply to AustralianSuper

The Trustee will review the draft Court Order and advise of any issues that would prevent the Trustee from complying with it. The Trustee has 28 days from the date the draft Court Order is provided to advise if any amendments are needed. Once the order is made, either by consent or following a court hearing, or your formal agreement has been approved, to split super you need to:

- complete the attached form
- organise a certified copy of the final court order, consent order or superannuation agreement
- organise certified copy/ies of proof of your identity, and
- send your signed form and the other documents to us.

Details and help on certifying documents are on the next page.

You should get legal advice before deciding what to do. A lawyer can help you understand your legal rights and responsibilities, and explain how the law applies to your case. A lawyer can help you reach an agreement with your former partner without going to court.

Accessing super as cash

To access super as cash, you generally need to be permanently retired and have reached your preservation age. Your preservation age is 55 if you were born before 1 July 1960. Higher preservation ages apply to younger people. There are other situations where you can access some or all

There are other situations where you can access some or al of your super. These are:

- reaching age 65, or
- leaving an employer once you turn 60.

Date of birth	Preservation age
Before 1 July 1960	55
1 July 1960 to 30 June 1961	56
1 July 1961 to 30 June 1962	57
1 July 1962 to 30 June 1963	58
1 July 1963 to 30 June 1964	59
1 July 1964 or after	60

These retirement age and access situations relate to the preserved part of super. Any unrestricted non-preserved amounts (usually after-tax contributions made before 1 July 1999) can be withdrawn at any time. You'll pay tax on any super you take as cash if you're aged less than 60.

Transferring your entitlement to another super fund

You can also transfer some or all of your entitlement to another super fund. If you're only transferring some of your entitlement, and leaving the balance in an AustralianSuper account, you need to have a minimum balance of $6,000 in your AustralianSuper account.

The Trustee has set this minimum balance of $6,000 to ensure there is enough in your account to cover any fees payable from your account and if you have insurance cover, to ensure this cover does not lapse and the cost of insurance premiums can be met.

Once we receive your completed application form and certified documents, it will usually take around five business days to make a cash payment or three business days for your super to be transferred to another fund. This doesn't include time for postage or transfers.

What if you don't tell us what to do with your super payment?

If you're already a member of AustralianSuper, this amount will be added to your account and invested based on your current investment choice(s).

If you're not currently with AustralianSuper, we'll transfer your entitlement into a new Personal Plan¹ account in your name and invested in AustralianSuper. This transferred amount will be invested in our Balanced option and is subject to market fluctuations.

You can stay with us as a member of our Personal Plan, transfer your benefit to another super fund or you may be eligible to withdraw your super as cash, subject to super preservation rules and meeting a condition of release.

If you don't return the form, your funds will remain in your Personal Plan account. You can apply to change your investment choice or transfer your super any time by logging into your online member account at australiansuper.com or call us for help on 1300 300 273.

How to certify your documents

Read this section if you choose to attach paper copies of certified documentation for providing proof of your identity. Alternatively, you can use electronic verification. See section 3 of the form for details.

Get your ID documents and photocopies ready for certification

Take both the ORIGINAL and a photocopy of your CURRENT driver licence, passport or government-issued proof of age card to someone who is authorised to certify ID (e.g. a police officer, a medical practitioner, a lawyer, a post office employee or a financial adviser or planner.) If you are using your driver licence or the government-issued proof of age card, you'll need to photocopy BOTH sides.

If you're withdrawing more than $10,000 you'll also need to provide additional ID:

- Above $10,000 and up to $50,000: either one bill (power, telephone) or one bank statement issued within the last three months.
- Above $50,000 and up to $75,000: either two bills (power, telephone) or two bank statements issued within the last three months.
- Above $75,000: either three bills (power, telephone) or either three bank statements issued within the last three months.

All ID must have the same name and mailing address that we have for your super account.

Ask them to certify your ID

To certify your ID, the authorised person needs to compare the photocopy to the ORIGINAL and include the following details on the copy:

- stamp or write 'This is a true and correct copy of the original'
- their qualification (such as police officer)
- · their name
- · their address and phone number, and
- · their signature and the date it was signed.

Every page of the documents we receive from you must have been certified and dated within the last 6 months. Undated documents will be rejected.

For a list of who can certify your ID for you, go to australiansuper.com/IDHelp for more information.
