

AustralianSuper appoints new Group Executive

AustralianSuper has appointed accomplished policy and public affairs executive Sarah Adams to the role of Group Executive, Strategy, Brand and Reputation.

Ms Adams joins AustralianSuper from senior executive roles in government and the private sector, including as Executive Director Communications & Stakeholder Relations at Bushfire Recovery Victoria, General Manager Corporate Affairs for Coles Group and senior leadership positions within the Federal government.

Ms Adams previously practiced as a solicitor specialising in employment law.

AustralianSuper Chief Executive, Ian Silk, welcomed Ms Adams to the role.

‘As an experienced policy and public affairs professional with broad multi-sector experience I am looking forward to Sarah contributing to our mission of helping members achieve their best possible retirement outcome,’ Mr Silk said.

Ms Adams said she was looking forward to joining AustralianSuper.

‘I’m very excited to be joining AustralianSuper and being a member of such a highly respected executive team,’ she said.

‘I look forward to working on behalf of members of our nation’s leading superannuation fund in what are very important and challenging times.’

Media Enquiries:

Stephen McMahon
Head of External Relations
Mobile: 0407 507 415
smcmahon@australiansuper.com