New Investment Director joins AustralianSuper's London property team

AustralianSuper has appointed Victoria Stanley to join its London property team as an Investment Director.

Ms Stanley joins AustralianSuper from Invesco with 16 years of investment and asset management experience in UK real estate markets across a breadth of commercial and residential sectors. Most recently she has focused on the UK residential sector as the Investment Manager for the Invesco Real Estate UK Residential Investment Fund.

AustralianSuper's Senior Investment Director, Property, Paul Clark, said the Fund would greatly benefit from Ms Stanley's experience and expertise.

'Vicky's skills and outlook will be a great addition to our growing European property team. In particular her deep experience of the residential markets will add to the breadth of our capabilities,' Mr Clark said.

'As a growing pension Fund we are looking to increase our exposure in the UK and European property markets, and Vicky will be playing a key role in achieving this.'

Ms Stanley said she was excited to be joining AustralianSuper, the biggest pension fund in Australia with $AUD213 billion (£120 billion) in member assets.

'I'm looking forward to helping a growing pension fund deliver on its mission to provide its 2.3 million members with their best possible retirement outcome,' Ms Stanley said.

'AustralianSuper is a global investor with strong capital inflows and a long-term investment horizon,' she said.

'It's an exciting time for AustralianSuper as we look for opportunities to expand our $AUD10 billion global property portfolio.'
