

Key features of the new Employer Portal

AustralianSuper is committed to delivering a world-class Australia-based service for our employer partners. The new Employer Portal¹ is an integrated clearing house and self-service administration solution provided by Wrkr that's designed to help you meet your super obligations.

Getting ready for Payday Super

Under the Payday Super legislation, set for a 1 July 2026 start date, your employee super payments will need to align with each pay run. The new Employer Portal is designed to support your business as you move to pay-cycle processing with real-time data entry checks, automated alerts and clear reporting for single or across multiple ABNs.

Key features

The new Employer Portal will offer the following key features:

- Management of super compliance admin with a single login.
- A simple and user-friendly interface.
- Real-time validation and clear status tracking to help you resolve exceptions quickly.
- Secure sign-in with multi-factor authentication (MFA).
- Digital onboarding – new employees enter their own information and choice of super fund, helping you meet your super compliance obligations, like stapling.
- Reduced admin complexity with multi-entity switching.
- Smart alerts to help you stay on track.
- Bulk upload contribution files for multiple employees in one go, then reuse templates next pay cycle.
- Functionality to support Payday Super changes.
- Access to in-product guidance, plus support from AustralianSuper – backed by local teams who understand employer needs.

Who can use the Employer Portal?

Business owners, bookkeepers and payroll service providers acting on behalf of employers.
