

AustralianSuper Select for Australia Post employees

About this employee booklet

The information in this employee booklet forms part of the Product Disclosure Statement for AustralianSuper Select prepared on 3 September 2022.

It's specific to permanent and fixed-term employees of the Australian Postal Corporation and its entities* as the contributing employers (referred to as Australia Post in this booklet). Information about fees and costs paid as a member of AustralianSuper Select, including how and when they're paid, have been published in the AustralianSuper Select Product Disclosure Statement.

If you're an existing AustralianSuper member and not in AustralianSuper Select for Australia Post employees, please refer to the relevant Product Disclosure Statement for your plan.

If you're a casual employee you're not eligible to join AustralianSuper Select. Please speak to your employer to discuss your options.

Types of insurance cover

AustralianSuper provides the following types of insurance cover†:

Types of insurance cover
Death	Can help ease financial stress by paying a lump sum to your beneficiaries if something happens to you.
Total & Permanent Disablement (TPD)	Can provide a lump sum if you become totally and permanently disabled and can no longer work.
Income Protection	Can provide monthly payments to help you get by if you become ill or injured (at work or outside of work) and can't work temporarily.

If you have Death or TPD cover you're also covered for terminal illness. This can help ease some of the financial stress if you're suffering from a terminal medical condition.

Your insurance cover

Your super account comes with basic insurance cover which is arranged by your employer (see the Basic cover section). This cover provides a basic level of protection if you die or become ill or injured.

Any basic cover you pay for will start automatically if you're 25 or older; and your super balance reaches $6,000; and you've received an employer super contribution after your super balance first reaches $6,000 (age limits and other conditions apply).

You can apply to start your basic cover that you pay for earlier, without providing detailed health information (conditions apply), by completing the Start your basic cover form you received with your welcome letter.

Any basic cover your employer pays for will start once you've received an employer super contribution from them, regardless of your super balance.

See the Insurance in your super guide for Select members at australiansuper.com/AustraliaPost for details and examples of when cover starts.

* Decipha Pty Ltd, POLi Payment Pty Ltd, and SecurePay Pty Ltd.

† AustralianSuper insurance is provided by TAL Life Limited (the Insurer) ABN 70 050 109 450, AFSL 237848.

Important information

There are many circumstances that may affect your insurance cover. See the Insurance in your super guide for Select members at australiansuper.com/AustraliaPost for more information about your AustralianSuper Select insurance. It details terms and conditions about insurance including your eligibility for cover, how much you can apply for, when it starts and stops, active employment, limited cover and exclusions, your insurance options, and what happens if you leave your Select employer.

Your eligibility to claim for benefits will be determined by the Insurer in line with our insurance policy terms and conditions.

Cost of your cover

Insurance costs include stamp duty charges and costs incurred by the Trustee for administering insurance arrangements.

If you're in open Categories 1 or 2

You pay the cost of your Death, TPD and Income Protection cover which is deducted monthly from your super account. Your first payment may be higher than your ongoing monthly payments. This is because it includes insurance costs from the date your cover started to the date of your first payment deduction (which may be for a period that's longer than a month).

If you're a member in closed Categories 3 or 4

Decipha Pty Ltd pays the cost of your basic Death and TPD cover in AustralianSuper Select. The insurance costs paid by Decipha are counted towards your before-tax (concessional) contribution cap for each financial year. This may affect your ability to make, or the amount you are able to contribute as, additional before-tax contributions.

You pay for the cost of your additional Death, TPD or Income Protection cover which is deducted monthly from your super account. Your first payment may be higher than your ongoing monthly payments. This is because it includes insurance costs from the date your cover started to the date of your first payment deduction (which may be for a period that's longer than a month).

Basic cover

Eligible permanent and fixed-term employees will receive a basic level of insurance cover with a Professional category work rating. Basic cover is salary-based and your employer informs us of your salary to calculate cover (age limits apply).

Your basic Death and TPD cover amounts will change from month to month depending on your salary and your length of service to age 65 or 70.

The type of basic cover you're eligible for depends on your employment and insurance category as shown in the table below. The insurance category you're in is determined by your employer. If you're unsure which category you're in, please ask your employer. Categories 3 and 4 are closed to new members.

	Category 1 (open)		Category 2 (open)	Category 3 (closed)	Category 4 (closed)

* Salary is generally your annual (before-tax) salary, excluding employer super contributions. For more details see the Insurance in your super guide for Select members at australiansuper.com/AustraliaPost

[†] Future service is defined as the number of complete years and months until you turn 65 (if you're in Categories 3 or 4) or 70 (if you're in Categories 1 or 2). A partial month is rounded up to the nearest whole month.

[‡] Up to 75% of your monthly salary is paid to you and up to 10% is paid to your super account.

[§] Cover can stop for many reasons. For a list of events that may make cover stop, see the Insurance in your super guide for Select members at australiansuper.com/AustraliaPost

When your basic cover changes in line with your salary

Your employer will tell us if there's a change to your salary. When your basic cover is salary-based, the amount and cost of it will increase or decrease automatically in line with your salary. It can increase up to the automatic limits shown in the table below without you having to provide additional health information:

Automatic limits
Death and TPD cover	Income Protection (Categories 1 and 2)
$1.5M	$12,000 a month

We'll write to you about your options if your basic cover has reached the automatic limit(s). To increase your basic cover in line with your salary above the automatic limits, you'll need to provide detailed health information for the Insurer to consider.

Change your cover anytime

You can cancel, change or apply for insurance anytime by logging into your account or completing the Change your insurance form at australiansuper.com/select

The cost of any additional cover you apply for will be paid by you and deducted monthly from your super account.

If you're in Categories 3 or 4, if you change your cover, you'll have to pay for some or all of the cost yourself, even if your employer paid for your basic cover before.

For more information about changing or cancelling your cover, see the AustralianSuper Select Product Disclosure Statement at australiansuper.com/select and the Insurance in your super guide for Select members at australiansuper.com/AustraliaPost

About work ratings

As a member of AustralianSuper Select, you have both an individual work rating and a category work rating. These work ratings are used to calculate the cost of your cover.

Your category work rating is unique to your Select employer and only applies while you're their employee.

If your category and individual work ratings are different, we'll apply the less expensive work rating to calculate the cost of your cover. This is your applied work rating.

Check your applied work rating by logging into your account. Apply to change your individual work rating by completing the Change my individual work rating form available at australiansuper.com/select

Individual work rating

Your individual work rating is Blue Collar unless you're eligible to change to White Collar or Professional and your application is approved by the Insurer.

Insurance cover with a Blue Collar work rating is the most expensive.

Category work rating

Your category work rating is Professional and applies only while you're an employee of Australia Post.

What happens if you leave your Select employer

If you leave Australia Post your account will move from Select to the AustralianSuper Plan. You'll keep the same amount of cover you already have when you move to AustralianSuper Plan and it will become fixed cover (if eligible). You'll pay the cost of your total cover which will be deducted monthly from your super account.

Your category work rating will no longer apply, and the cost of your cover will be based on your age, level of cover and your individual work rating. We'll write to you if this happens.

Changing your individual work rating

If you think you might be eligible for an individual work rating that's White Collar or Professional, you can apply to change it. If you're eligible, you could pay less for your cover:

- while you're in Select if the individual work rating that applies to you is the less expensive work rating than your category work rating, and
- if you leave Australia Post and keep your cover when you move from Select to AustralianSuper Plan.

You can't change your category work rating because it's arranged by your employer.

To learn more, see the Changing jobs? Take AustralianSuper with you section in the Insurance in your super guide for Select members at australiansuper.com/AustraliaPost

To learn more about checking your eligibility and applying to change your individual work rating, see the Insurance in your super guide for Select members at australiansuper.com/AustraliaPost

Weekly cost for $10,000 of Death and TPD cover

Calculating the weekly cost of Death and TPD cover

1. Divide the amount of cover you have, or wish to apply for, by $10,000.
2. Then multiply by the weekly cost for $10,000 of Death or TPD cover for your age, gender, insurance category and a Professional work rating.

Example (Professional work rating):

Sally is 31, female, in Category 1 and has a Professional work rating.

She has $500,000 of Death cover and $500,000 of TPD cover.

To work out the weekly cost of her Death cover:

$$\frac{500,000}{10,000} \times 0.035 = 1.75$$

The cost of Sally's Death cover is $1.75 a week.

To work out the weekly cost of her TPD cover:

$$\frac{500,000}{10,000} \times 0.025 = 1.25$$

The cost of Sally's TPD cover is $1.25 a week.

Calculating the weekly cost of Income Protection

1. Divide the amount of cover you have, or wish to apply for, by $100.
2. Then multiply by the weekly cost for $100 a month of Income Protection for a Professional work rating (see pages 5 and 6), your age, gender, insurance category, waiting period and benefit payment period.

Example (Professional work rating):

Sally is 31, female and in Category 1. She has $6,200 a month of Income Protection with a benefit payment period up to two years, and a 60 day waiting period and a Professional work rating.

To work out the weekly cost of her Income Protection:

$$\frac{6,200}{100} \times 0.034 = 2.108$$

The cost of Sally's Income Protection is $2.11 a week.

* If you're in Categories 3 or 4, costs are for fixed Death cover only as your basic salary-based Death cover ends at age 65. See the Insurance in your super guide for Select members at australiansuper.com/AustraliaPost for more information.

Total weekly costs are quoted gross of tax. Costs are rounded for disclosure purposes.

Weekly cost for $100 a month of Income Protection for Category 1 and Category 3 members

The cost of basic Income Protection for Category 1 Australia Post employees in Select is based on age, gender, a Professional category work rating, a 60 day waiting period and a benefit payment period up to two years. If you're an employee in Category 3 you don't have Income Protection when you join but you can apply for it. The cost of it will be based on your age, gender, a Professional work rating and your selected benefit payment period and waiting period.

Weekly cost for $100 a month of Income Protection for Category 2 and Category 4 members

The cost of basic Income Protection for Category 2 Australia Post employees in Select is based on age, gender, a Professional category work rating, a 60 day waiting period and a benefit payment period up to two years. If you're an employee in Category 4 you don't have Income Protection when you join but you can apply for it. The cost of it will be based on your age, gender, a Professional work rating and your selected benefit payment period and waiting period.

Useful things you should know

Limited cover and full cover

Limited cover means you don't have full cover and you won't be covered for any pre-existing illnesses or injuries you had before you got your cover. Limited cover may last for different lengths of time and applies to all cover types, including Death cover. You'll be covered for an illness that becomes apparent, or an injury that occurs on or after the date that your cover starts, restarts or increases.

Full cover means your cover is not limited cover. You're covered for both pre-existing and new illnesses or injuries, unless exclusions apply.

To learn more and understand other circumstances for limited cover see the Limited cover section in the Insurance in your super guide for Select members at australiansuper.com/AustraliaPost

Claiming on your cover

Your eligibility to claim for benefits will be determined by the Insurer in line with our insurance policy terms and conditions. The table below provides handy details if you need to make a claim.

	Death	TPD	Income Protection*	Terminal Illness
When making a claim, does it matter whether I'm employed or unemployed at the date of death, injury or illness?	✗	✓	✓	✗
Is basic cover provided if I've previously made a claim for TPD or terminal illness?	✓ Limited cover [†] will apply	✓ Limited cover [†] will apply	✓ Category 1 or 2: Limited cover [†] may apply Category 3 or 4: You don't get basic Income Protection [‡] with your AustralianSuper Select account.	✓ Limited cover [†] will apply
Is there a waiting period before a claim can be paid?	✗	✓ 3 months	✓ Category 1 or 2: Basic cover has a 60 day waiting period. Category 3 or 4: You don't get basic Income Protection [‡] with your AustralianSuper Select account. If you apply for cover your selected waiting period will apply.	✗
Are pre-existing medical conditions covered (provided limited cover doesn't apply [†])?	✓	✓	✓	✓

* If you have Income Protection and are eligible to make a claim, your benefit payments may be reduced by income you receive from other sources. See the Insurance in your super guide for Select members at australiansuper.com/AustraliaPost for examples.

† See the Limited cover and full cover section above to understand what this means for you.

‡ Income Protection is not provided for members in Categories 3 or 4 when you join but you can apply for it.

How to claim

We're here to help guide you (and the beneficiaries of members who've passed away), through the process of making a claim.

To talk about a possible claim, call us on 1300 667 387 from 8:30am to 5pm AEST/AEDT weekdays.

Can I nominate beneficiaries?

Nominate who will receive your super if you pass away. This is an important decision and will tell us who you want your super account balance and insurance to be paid to.

To make a binding nomination complete a valid Binding death nomination form available at australiansuper.com/forms

What if I change my super fund?

To find out if you have insurance with another fund, log into your account and go to Consolidate and find your super.

It's important to know that if you want to transfer insurance cover to AustralianSuper, you'll need to do this before you combine your super. That's because combining your super into your AustralianSuper account doesn't automatically transfer any insurance you have with your other super fund(s). See the Applying for an insurance transfer fact sheet at australiansuper.com/select for step-by-step instructions on how to apply.

Information about the TPD definition

The TPD definition is explained in the section headed 'Claiming a TPD benefit payment' in the Insurance in your super guide for Select members.

However, as explained below, eligible members have an additional TPD definition that could apply to them.

An alternate TPD definition applies to eligible members

As part of the successor fund transfer of members and assets of the Australia Post Superannuation Plan (APSP), a sub-plan in the AMP Superannuation Savings Trust, to AustralianSuper, a TPD definition that was available to eligible members in the APSP will continue to be offered to eligible members in AustralianSuper.

Eligible members (as identified by Australia Post and notified to AustralianSuper) were made aware of this alternative TPD definition in the Transfer Guide they received regarding the successor fund transfer. These eligible members have been listed in the schedule to the insurance policy held by AustralianSuper with its insurer, TAL.

The alternate TPD definition for eligible members is described as Definition C: Grandfathered Transferred Australia Post Plan Members in the insurance policy held by AustralianSuper with TAL (Definition C).

Who is an 'eligible member' for Definition C?

Eligible members for Definition C are those members who, as at 1 July 2014:

- were members of the APSP;
- held TPD cover that commenced prior to 1 July 2014; and
- were engaged in either a Professional Occupation or Senior Managerial Duties, as defined in Definition C.

In addition, to make a TPD claim under Definition C, you will need to meet the eligibility criteria described in Definition C as at date of disablement.

If you no longer meet the eligibility criteria described in Definition C as at the date of disablement, then Definition A or Definition B (as applicable) shall apply. Definition A and B are explained in the section headed 'Claiming a TPD benefit payment' in the Insurance in your super guide for Select members.

Definition of Total & Permanent Disablement

Total & Permanent Disablement means in respect of an insured member that the insured member's date of disablement occurs whilst they have cover in force under the policy and they meet the definition that applies to them, where the definition that applies to an insured member is determined as follows:

Definition A applies to an insured member who immediately prior to the date of disablement was:

- a) unemployed for a continuous period of less than 16 months;
- b) employed; or
- c) self-employed;

Definition B applies to an insured member who immediately prior to the date of disablement was unemployed for a continuous period of 16 months or more.

Definition C applies to a transferring Australia Post Plan member who is identifiable in the relevant Select Schedule as one of the 'grandfathered employees whose cover commenced prior to 1 July 2014' and who continues to meet the eligibility criteria in Definition C as at the date of disablement. Definition A or Definition B (as applicable) shall apply to a transferring Australia Post member who does not meet the eligibility criteria in Definition C as at the date of disablement.

Definition C: Grandfathered Transferred Australia Post Plan Members

The insured member is engaged:

- a) in a Professional Occupation or Senior Managerial Duties in which they have been working for at least 35 hours per week for the 12 months immediately before suffering the illness or injury which led to the disability and they meet the definition in either Parts 1, 2, 3 or 5; or
- b) in Regular Remunerative Work and they meet the definition in either Parts 1, 2, 3 or 5;
- c) in full time home duties and they meet the definition in either Parts 2, 3, 4 or 5; or
- d) in work and their disability meets the definition in either Parts 2, 3 or 5.

Part 1 (Unable to work)

An insured member is totally and permanently disabled if he or she suffers an illness or injury while engaged in Regular Remunerative Work and:

- a) the illness or injury wholly prevents the insured member from engaging in Regular Remunerative Work for six months in a row; and
- b) since the insured member became ill or injured they have been under the care and attention of a medical practitioner for that illness or injury; and
- c) in our opinion the illness or injury means that the insured member is unlikely to ever work in or attend to:
 - (i) his or her Professional Occupation with any employer or as a self employed person; or
 - (ii) Senior Managerial Duties; or
 - (iii) Regular Remunerative Work for which he or she is reasonably fitted by education training or experience, which they were engaged in when they suffered the illness or the injury.

Part 2 (loss of use of limbs and/or sight)

An insured member is totally and permanently disabled if he or she suffers an illness or injury that results in the total and irrecoverable loss of the:

- a) use of two limbs;
- b) sight of both eyes;
- c) use of one limb and the sight of one eye, where a limb means the whole hand below the wrist or the whole foot below the ankle.

Part 3 (loss of independent living)

An insured member is totally and permanently disabled if he or she suffers an illness or injury and becomes totally and permanently unable to perform at least 2 of the activities of daily living without assistance from someone else.

Activities of Daily Living

- a) Washing: the insured member can wash themselves by some means;
- b) Dressing: the insured member can put clothing on or take clothing off;
- c) Feeding: the insured member can get food from a plate into their mouth;

- d) Contenance: the insured member can control both their bowel and their bladder function;
- e) Mobility: the insured member can:
 - (i) get in and out of bed;
 - (ii) get on or off a chair/toilet; and
 - (iii) move from place to place without using a wheelchair.

Part 4 (Home Duties)

An insured member is totally and permanently disabled if he or she suffers an illness or injury while engaged in home duties and:

- a) the illness or injury wholly prevents them from engaging in any Home Duties for at least 6 months in a row; and
- b) since he or she became ill or injured they have been under the regular care and attention of a Doctor for that illness or injury; and
- c) in our opinion, the illness or injury means that the insured member is unlikely to ever engage in all Home Duties.

Home Duties include cleaning the family home, shopping for food and household items, meal preparation and laundry services, and caring for a dependant child or other dependent (if applicable) of the insured members immediate family.

Part 5 (Loss of cognitive functioning)

An insured member is totally and permanently disabled if they suffer an illness or injury while engaged in regular remunerative or full time home duties and they suffer significant and permanent cognitive impairment with a loss of intellectual capacity, and they are required to be under the continuous care and supervision of someone else.

Professional Occupation

Professional Occupation means any occupation shown in the following group, where membership of a professional or Government body is necessary as a prerequisite for engaging in that occupation: Duties involve no or minimal site attendance and no manual work and no supervision of manual work.

Accountant	Actuary	Architect
Audiologist	Auditor	Barrister
Chemist	Dental Surgeon	Dentist
Doctor	Engineer	Industrial Chemist
Judge	Lawyer	Medical Practitioner
Medical Specialist	Optometrist	Orthodontist
Patent Attorney	Professor, Associate Professor	Psychologist
Radiologist	Solicitor	Surveyor
University Lecturer	Veterinary Surgeon

If an insured member engaged in a specialised occupation or duty in one of the professional occupations listed, our assessment of whether he or she is totally and permanently disabled will depend upon whether he or she could work in or attend to any area of the listed professional occupations, not just the specialised area or duty engaged when the disability commenced.

Senior Managerial Duties

The insured member is engaged in Senior Managerial Duties if he or she is a senior member of their Employer's management/executive team and:

- a) his or her duties do not involve manual work or the supervision of manual work;
- b) he or she works in an office where the work is of a sedentary nature; and
- c) the insured members Net Earnings before tax exceeded $123,355 per annum in each of the 3 years immediately before he or she becomes disabled. This amount applied until July 2007 when it will be indexed each year by an increase in the CPI.

Regular Remunerative Work

The insured member is engaged in Regular Remunerative Work if they work in any employment, business, or occupation for at least 15 hours per week. The insured member must be doing this work for reward – or hope of reward – of any type.

Net Earnings

Net Earnings means the insured member's total before tax income package from employment, including commissions, regular bonuses, fringe benefits and any other items relating to their own efforts, less tax deductible business expenses related to earning that income. However, we do not include superannuation contributions made by the insured member's employer that are part of a salary sacrifice arrangement between the insured member and their employer.

When an insured member owns (directly or indirectly) all or part of the business practice, 'net earnings' means income earned by the business or practice as a result of his or her personal exertion or activities less his or her share of the business expenses incurred in earning that income. We do not include investment income.
