Insurance in superannuation
Key facts sheet

This fact sheet relates to our automatic insurance cover for AustralianSuper Plan members*.

Insurance can give you peace of mind, as it provides financial support to protect what’s important to you if you die or have to stop work due to illness or injury.

We provide you with insurance cover automatically when you join, and deduct fees from your super so you don’t have to remember to pay for it.

Don’t forget, if you or your employer stop making contributions, your insurance fees will continue to be deducted from your super balance.

You can cancel or apply to change your automatic insurance cover anytime. Log into your account and go to My insurance or complete one of our paper forms at australiansuper.com/forms.

What are your options?

Keep your cover

- Keep the insurance you receive automatically.
  Our automatic cover is age-based which means the amount of cover you get and the cost of it changes as you get older. You should think about whether this level of cover is right for you.
  For more information on age-based cover and your insurance options download a copy of our Insurance in your super guide at austriansuper.com/InsuranceGuide

Cancel your cover

- Cancel your insurance anytime.
  You (or your beneficiaries) won’t be able to make an insurance claim if something happens after the cancellation.
  If you cancel your cover, the cost of cover will stop being deducted from your account (costs are deducted one month in arrears).
  You might not be able to get cover later. That’s because you’ll need to reapply and provide health information for the insurer to consider.

Change your cover anytime

- Change your insurance to meet your needs.
  You can reduce your cover anytime.
  You can also apply for more (or new) cover.
  Usually you’ll need to provide health information for the insurer to consider. Maximum limits apply.
  Use our insurance calculator to work out the right level of cover for you, and the cost of it.

  To apply to change your cover log into your account and go to My insurance or complete one of our paper forms at austriansuper.com/forms
