Before combining your super: If you're combining your super, you should consider any fees and costs that may apply and the impact on your insurance cover and benefits. If you want to transfer your cover, you'll need to do this within a super account before you combine your super. For more information about transferring cover, read our Insurance in your super guide at australiansuper.com/InsuranceGuide

4 Your tax file number

Use my Tax File Number (TFN) to process my super rollover.

Enter your TFN here

By giving us your TFN, you are authorising us to give this information to your other super fund. They'll confirm your ID with the Australian Tax Office. It's optional to provide your Tax File Number (TFN) but there are several advantages if you do. See 'Providing your TFN' below for more information.

4. This form doesn't:

 - transfer benefits from multiple funds on one form - you must use a separate form for each fund you wish to transfer
 - change the fund to which your employer pays your contributions

- open a Choice Income or TTR Income account, or
- transfer benefits under certain conditions or circumstances, for example if there is a superannuation agreement under the Family Law Act 1975 in place.

Providing your TFN

We're authorised under super law to collect, use and disclose your Tax File Number (TFN). You don't have to provide your TFN, but if we have it, we'll be able to accept all types of contributions into your super account if you have one, you won't pay more tax than you need to and it'll be easier to find any lost super. If you transfer to another fund, we'll give them your TFN unless you tell us not to in writing. Visit australiansuper.com/RefTFN for more details.
