

Can you add to super?

Work Test or Work Test Exemption declaration

Use this form if you are aged between 67 and 74 years and want to contribute to your super. Please complete in pen using CAPITAL letters and print to mark boxes. Read the Privacy Collection Statement on this form to see how AustralianSuper uses your personal information. You should consider your debt levels, contribution caps that may apply and tax issues before adding to your super. Read the Contribution limits fact sheet available at australiansuper.com/factsheets to learn more.

STEP 1. WORK OUT IF YOU CAN ADD EXTRA TO YOUR SUPER

You can only add extra to your super if you meet the Work Test criteria or you're eligible for the Work Test Exemption.

Confirm you meet one of the following options, based on your circumstances:

Work Test

I'm aged between 67-74 years and I've worked at least 40 hours in 30 consecutive days ('gainfully' employed or self-employed) during the financial year in which I am contributing extra to my super.

Work Test Exemption

I am aged between 67-74 years and:

- do not meet the Work Test in the current the financial year;
- met the Work Test last financial year;
- had a total superannuation balance of less than $300,000 at the end of the last financial year;
- have not used the Work Test Exemption to make contributions in a previous year.

Note: The Work Test Exemption can only be used to make voluntary contributions in the financial year you satisfy the exemption criteria. It can't be used again in subsequent years. If you're aged 74 your last contribution must be received by AustralianSuper within 28 days after the end of the month in which you attain the age 75.

! Gainfully employed can include acting as a director of a company or employment under a labour hire contract but, does not include voluntary work for charity.
