About this Product Disclosure Statement
This Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) is a summary of significant information and contains a number of references to important information (each of which forms part of the PDS). You should consider that information before making a decision about the product.

This information is current at the date of publication, but may change frequently. You should check the website for current information. A paper copy of the changes is available on request at no extra charge.

This PDS provides general information only and doesn’t take into account your personal financial situation or needs. You should obtain financial advice tailored to your personal circumstances.
2 How super works

Super is an important way for you to save for retirement.

Super is an investment for your future and the sooner money starts going into your account, the better off you’ll be when you retire. That’s because, over the long term, your super grows from investment returns and any money that’s added to your account.

There are many ways money can be added (contributed) to your account.

Employer contributions

Employers pay compulsory contributions to your super. These contributions may be paid under the Superannuation Guarantee (SG), which currently is an amount equal to 10% of your annual salary (subject to salary cap), or they may be at a different rate under your employment agreement or award.

There are also other types of contributions that could help you grow your super.

Personal contributions

- Before-tax – includes salary sacrifice contributions made by you, any personal contributions for which you claim a tax deduction and voluntary contributions made by your employer for which they claim a tax deduction.

- After-tax – includes any extra additional contributions you make from your take-home pay, for which you don’t advise us you wish to claim a tax deduction.

Useful information to know

Tax benefits are provided by the Government to encourage you to save more for retirement and grow your super over time.

You generally can’t access your super savings until you reach your preservation age. Your preservation age varies depending on the year you were born.

To learn more about accessing your super, rollovers and preservation age, visit australiansuper.com/AccessYourSuper

It’s your super, it’s your choice

Normally you can tell your employer where you want your super to be paid. But in some cases, it depends on your employment contract. If you don’t make a choice or tell your employer where you want your super paid, they’ll pay your contributions to a MySuper compliant super fund.

Protecting your super

If you have an account balance below $6,000, legislation requires us to transfer your account to the Australian Tax Office (ATO) after 16 months of inactivity. Where possible, the ATO will transfer your account to your active super fund. To find out how to keep your AustralianSuper account active, visit australiansuper.com/pys

Combine your super and transfer your insurance to save

If you’ve had more than one job in the past, you may have more than one super account and several insurance policies. Having multiple accounts isn’t just messier - it could be a lot more expensive. Learn more about combining your super and transferring insurance cover at australiansuper.com/combine

* Depending on your income and personal circumstances, you may be better off contributing before or after tax, or using a combination of both. The Government places limits on the amount that can be contributed to super. To learn more, visit australiansuper.com/InfoTax

4 Risks of super

All investments, including super, have some risk.

How you invest your super will depend on your age, how long you’ll invest your super, other investments you may have, and your tolerance for volatility.

Volatility is when the returns on your investment go up or down over time. The level of volatility your super investment could have will depend on the types of assets that your super is invested in. Assets are investments such as shares, property, fixed interest, or cash.

Different types of assets have different levels of potential return and volatility. Generally, higher long-term returns are accompanied by a greater potential for volatility in the short term.

You can choose from a range of investment options, each with a different mix of assets. So, the likely investment return and the level of potential volatility of returns involved are different for each option.

What you need to think about

When considering your super, it’s important to understand that:

- investment returns may go up and down over time and the value of investments will vary, so the value of your super may also go up and down
- investing too conservatively can be risky because over the long term your investment may not earn a return above the inflation rate
- returns aren’t guaranteed, and you may lose some of your money
- past returns aren’t a reliable indicator of future returns
- the laws affecting your super may change
- the amount of your future super savings (including contributions and returns) may not be enough for your retirement.

› To beat the median balanced fund over the medium to longer term.

Minimum investment timeframe

Risk levels
› Short-term risk classifies investment options according to their likelihood of negative returns in a given year. This is also known as the Standard Risk Measure.

6 Fees and costs

Did you know?
Small differences in both investment performance and fees and costs can have a substantial impact on your long-term returns.

For example, total annual fees and costs of 2% of your account balance rather than 1% could reduce your final return by up to 20% over a 30-year period (for example, reduce it from $100,000 to $80,000).

You should consider whether features such as superior investment performance or the provision of better member services justify higher fees and costs.

You or your employer, as applicable, may be able to negotiate to pay lower fees. Ask the fund or your financial adviser.

To find out more
If you would like to find out more, or see the impact of fees based on your own circumstances, the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) website (moneysmart.gov.au) has a superannuation calculator to help you check out different fee options.

Fees and other costs for the Balanced option
The main fees to manage your account are below, based on the Balanced option. You can use these to compare our fees with similar funds.

The Investment fee for our other investment options is different. This fee is calculated looking back as at 30 June each year and is likely to change from year to year, the amount for subsequent financial years will depend on the actual fees and costs incurred in managing investments.

* If your account balance for a product is less than $6,000 at the end of the financial year, the total combined amount of administration fees, investment fees and indirect costs charged to you is capped at 3% of the account balance. Any amount charged in excess of that cap must be refunded.

† To find out when returns are applied to your account, please refer to the Investment guide.
Example of annual fees and costs

7 How super is taxed

Tax on contributions

The tax paid on super contributions depends on the amount and type of contribution. Tax is deducted after the contribution is received. There are limits on how much you can contribute, and if you exceed these limits you may pay extra tax.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Type</th>
<th>Tax on contributions in 2021/2022</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| Before-tax contribution | If your income is $250,000 or less, 15% will be applied to contributions up to the before-tax contributions cap of $27,500.
If your adjusted taxable income (including your before-tax contributions) is more than $250,000 per year, your before-tax contributions will be taxed at 30%, to that extent.
Contributions that exceed the cap will be taxed at your personal rate (less a 15% tax offset), plus an interest charge.
You can choose to withdraw up to 85% of excess contributions, which won’t then count towards your after-tax limit. |
| After-tax contribution | No tax on amounts up to the after-tax contributions cap of $110,000 a year (or up to $330,000 over 3 years if certain conditions are met).
You can choose to withdraw any excess contributions plus 85% of its earnings.
These earnings will be taxed at your personal rate (less a 15% tax offset). If you don’t withdraw the excess contributions, they will be taxed at 47%* in the Fund.
There may be restrictions on the after-tax contributions you can make if you already have a very large balance in your super account/s. |

Tax on investment earnings: Investment earnings are taxed at up to 15%. This tax is deducted from the crediting rate that applies to your super, before the earnings are credited to your account.

Tax on withdrawals: Your super is made up of two components: taxable and tax-free. There’s no tax payable on the tax-free component. Lump sum withdrawals are generally tax-free if you’re aged 60 or over.

Tax on the taxable component† if you’re under 60

2021/2022 – If you’re between your preservation age and 59, the first $225,000 is tax-free and the balance is taxed at 17%.*

If you’re younger than your preservation age, your lump sum withdrawal will be taxed at 22%.*

Tax on withdrawals is deducted before you receive your payment. Tax rates, contribution limits and the way excess contributions are treated are subject to change. You should read Tax and super at australiansuper.com/RefSuperTax

You should provide your Tax File Number (TFN). If we don’t have your TFN, your before-tax contributions and withdrawals are taxed at a higher rate and we can’t accept after-tax contributions from you. You should read the important information about providing your TFN before making a decision.

Go to australiansuper.com/RefTFN The material relating to tax may change between the time when you read this PDS and the day when you acquire the product.

* Includes the Medicare levy.
† If your taxable component includes an untaxed element, additional tax may be applied to that element.
Insurance in your super

Insurance through AustralianSuper is designed to provide a basic level of protection if you die, or become ill or injured.

Cover isn’t provided automatically when you join Super Only, but you can apply for it anytime.

You can choose the types of cover that’s right for you:

› Death cover – can provide a lump sum to your beneficiaries if you die.

› Total & Permanent Disablement (TPD) cover – can provide a lump sum if you become totally and permanently disabled and can no longer work.

› Income Protection – can provide monthly payments to help you get by if you become ill or injured (at work or outside of work) and can’t work temporarily.

If you have Death or TPD cover you’re also covered for terminal illness. A terminal illness payment can help ease some of the financial stress if you’re suffering from a terminal medical condition.

Why insurance cover is important

The right insurance can protect your salary against the unexpected, and give you an income or lump sum payment, depending on if you’re temporarily or permanently unable to work. You may need cover if:

› you or your family rely on your income to pay living expenses such as rent, bills and food

› you have debts such as a mortgage, student loan, personal loan, credit card or car payments

› you need to provide for children or anyone else you support financially

› you have a job where there’s a higher chance of injury than normal

› you participate in sports competitively or as a hobby.

AustralianSuper insurance is provided by TAL Life Limited (the Insurer)
ABN 70 050 109 450 AFSL 237848.
How to apply for cover
You can apply for Death, TPD and Income Protection cover anytime. You’ll need to provide detailed health information for the Insurer to consider and have enough money in your super account to cover the cost of your first month of insurance. If your application is accepted, the cost of your cover will start to be deducted monthly from your super account from the later of the date your application is accepted or the date your cover starts.

To apply for cover use the app, log into your account and go to My insurance then Change my insurance or complete the Change your insurance form at australiansuper.com/InsuranceForms

How much cover can I apply for?
You can apply for cover anytime, as long as you have enough money in your account to cover the cost of your first month of insurance. The maximum cover you can apply for is shown in the table below. Your application will be considered by the Insurer and you’ll need to provide detailed health information.

* Salary is your annual (before-tax) salary, excluding employer super contributions.

Use our insurance calculator at australiansuper.com/InsuranceCalculator to work out the right level of cover for you, and the cost of it.

Change your cover anytime
You can apply for, change or cancel insurance cover anytime by using the app, logging into your account or completing the Change your insurance form at australiansuper.com/InsuranceForms
How much does cover cost?
The cost of your cover will depend on the amount and type of cover you apply for, your age and your individual work rating. Costs are deducted monthly from your super account. See the Insurance in your super guide for details.

To check how much cover is right for you and the cost use our calculator at australiansuper.com/InsuranceCalculator

About work ratings
A work rating classifies the usual activities of your job into one of three ratings: Blue Collar, White Collar or Professional. Your individual work rating is one of the factors that determines how much you pay for your insurance cover.

When you apply for cover, the cost of your cover is based on our default individual work rating, Blue Collar. Our default individual work rating is Blue Collar because our membership demographic is very wide due to all Australians being welcome to join AustralianSuper.

Insurance cover with a Blue Collar individual rating is the most expensive.

However, if you spend more than 80% of your job doing clerical or administrative activities in an office-based environment, and/or aren’t exposed to any unusual hazards you may be eligible for a White Collar or Professional individual work rating and pay less for your cover.

If you think you’re eligible, you can apply to change your individual work rating by logging into your account or answering the work ratings questions in the Change your insurance form at australiansuper.com/InsuranceForms when you apply for cover. Your application is subject to approval by the Insurer.

Transfer cover from another fund or insurer
You may be able to transfer your current cover from outside of AustralianSuper. For information about what happens when you transfer your cover and to find out how to, see the Insurance in your super guide for your division at australiansuper.com/InsuranceGuide

Before making a decision and applying for cover, you should read the Insurance in your super guide for your division at australiansuper.com/InsuranceGuide It details terms and conditions about insurance, including costs, your eligibility for cover, how much you can apply for, what you’re covered for, when it starts and stops, active employment, limited cover and exclusions, and your insurance options.

Your eligibility to claim for benefits will be determined by the Insurer in line with our insurance policy terms and conditions.

The material relating to insurance may change between the time when you read this PDS and the day when you acquire the product.
How to open an account

Your employer has already opened an account for you, but you can set up your account the way you want.

Visit australiansuper.com/register to set up your online account. You’ll be able to:

› apply for insurance
› check your balance
› manage your investments
› make a contribution
› nominate your beneficiaries
› manage your communication preferences
› update your details.

You can change your mind about us

If you’ve chosen AustralianSuper (instead of your employer signing you up) and you change your mind, a 14 day ‘cooling off’ period applies. This period starts from the earlier of:

› the date we confirm your AustralianSuper account has been established; or › five days after the date your account with AustralianSuper was established.

If you would like to cancel your membership during this period, please write to us at GPO Box 1901, Melbourne VIC 3001 or australiansuper.com/email.

If you cancel your membership during this period, we’ll transfer your account to an approved fund of your choice. Any contributions tax we’ve paid on your behalf will be deducted beforehand. We’ll also deduct any fees due.

Your account will attract investment earnings (positive or negative), in line with how we apply crediting rates. See australiansuper.com/InvestmentGuide for more details.

Cancelling your membership during this period means you won’t be entitled to any insurance benefits.

How to make a complaint

We work hard to ensure you won’t have cause to make a complaint, but if you do, you can discuss it with us by calling 1300 300 273 (8am-8pm AEST/AEDT weekdays) or by emailing your complaint to us via our website at australiansuper.com/email.

We aim to have all complaints resolved within 90 days (or 45 days if your complaint is received on or after 5 October 2021). If your complaint isn’t resolved by our internal complaints procedure within these timeframes you can refer it to the Australian Financial Complaints Authority (AFCA).

Visit australiansuper.com/contact-us for full details of our complaints process, other ways you can send through your complaint and AFCA’s contact details.

We respect your privacy

Protecting your personal information is important to us. Our Privacy Policy outlines the type of information we keep about you. It also explains how we – and any organisations we appoint to provide services on our behalf – will use this information.

For more information on privacy, go to australiansuper.com/privacy.

Temporary residents permanently leaving

If you’re a temporary resident permanently leaving Australia, you have six months to claim your super from us before we have to transfer it to the Australian Taxation Office (ATO). Once we’ve transferred your super, you’ll need to contact the ATO directly to claim it. Go to ato.gov.au.

Under Australian Securities and Investments Commission relief, we don’t have to give you an exit statement if we transfer your super to the ATO in these circumstances.
Changing jobs

When you change jobs there are good reasons to keep your AustralianSuper account.

If you’re changing jobs, your new employer will ask you to nominate a super fund - if you don’t, your employer will choose a fund for you. But why collect a new super fund every time you change jobs? More funds mean more fees and extra paperwork.

The right fund can make a real difference to how much you save for your future. So don’t leave your choice up to someone else - keep your super in one fund that you know won’t charge extra fees.

Tell your employer where to contribute
To have your employer contribute to your AustralianSuper account, complete the Pay my super into AustralianSuper form with this guide or at australiansuper.com/ChooseAustralianSuper and email it to your new employer.
