Apply for a payment (compassionate grounds)

How to apply

This form and information sheet will help you apply for the payment of your super benefit.

1 Check that you're eligible

You can apply to access your super benefit on 'compassionate grounds' if you need the money to pay for:

- medical expenses for you or your dependants
- partial payment of home loans to avoid foreclosure of the loan
- modification of a home or vehicle for you or your dependants suffering a severe disability
- the cost of palliative care for you or your dependants
- funeral costs for a dependant
- medical transport for you or your dependants.

You are not eligible to apply for a payment on compassionate grounds if you are a temporary resident in Australia.

If any of the grounds listed above apply to you, you can apply to the Department of Human Services (DHS) for the release of your super benefit on compassionate grounds. If DHS approves your application, you'll then need to apply to AustralianSuper.

2 Apply to Department of Human Services

Call DHS on 1300 131 060 to find out if you're eligible to request the early release of your super benefit on compassionate grounds.

They have separate forms for each of the grounds listed above in step 1. You'll need to fill in the forms that apply to your situation.

Detailed information and the relevant forms are available on their website at www.humanservices.gov.au

They will need to know your account balance

When you apply for the release of your super benefit, DHS will ask you how much money you currently have in your account.

To find out the balance of your super account login to your account at australiansuper.com or call 1300 300 273.

3 Apply to AustralianSuper

If DHS approves your claim, please complete the attached form and return it to us together with:

- · a certified copy of the DHS approval letter, and
- certified proof of your identity (ID).

See the next page for how you can certify documents.

Send the documents to Australian Super

Because we need to see original signatures on both your form and certified ID you must send these documents to us – you cannot fax or email them.

Send your documents to:

AustralianSuper GPO Box 1901 MELBOURNE VIC 3001

Once we receive your completed form and certified documents, it will usually take around five business days to process your request.

An account balance of less than $10,000 may affect your insurance cover. Refer to the Insurance in your super guide for details before deciding to request a payment.

Claiming a tax deduction for personal super contributions

If you're self-employed or you don't work and receive an income from investments, you might be able to claim a tax deduction for any personal contributions you've made to your super. To claim a tax deduction for personal super contributions, you must send us a Notice of intent to claim a tax deduction form before you withdraw your super benefit, transfer any part of your account to a retirement income account or close your account. We can't accept your Notice of intent to claim a tax deduction form after an application for a benefit payment or to open a retirement income account has been processed. To find out more about claiming a tax deduction for personal super contributions, see our fact sheet at australiansuper.com/ClaimDeduction

How to certify your documents

Read this section if you choose to attach paper copies of certified documentation for providing proof of your identity.

1 Go to your local police station

Take both the ORIGINAL and a photocopy of your CURRENT driver's licence or passport to your local police station. If you are using your driver's licence, you'll need to photocopy BOTH sides.

If you're withdrawing more than $10,000 you'll need additional ID:

- $10,001 up to $50,000: a CURRENT bill (power, telephone) or bank statement.
- $50,001 and over: two CURRENT bills (power, telephone) or bank statements.

And all ID must have the same name and mailing address that we have for your super account.

2 Ask them to certify your ID

To certify your ID, the authorised person needs to compare the photocopy to the ORIGINAL and include the following details on the copy:

- stamp or write 'This is a true and correct copy of the original'
- their qualification (such as police officer)
- their name
- their address and phone number, and
- their signature and the date it was signed.

If you can't get to a police station, a number of other people can certify your ID for you. Go to australiansuper.com/IDHelp for more information.

Privacy Collection Statement

Please read this Privacy Collection Statement to see how AustralianSuper uses your personal information.

AustralianSuper Pty Ltd (ABN 94 006 457 987) of 33/50 Lonsdale Street, Melbourne, Victoria, collects your personal information (PI) to run your super account (including insurance), improve our products and services and keep you informed. If we can't collect your PI we may not be able to do these tasks. PI is collected from you but sometimes from third parties like your employer. We will only share your PI where necessary to perform our activities with our administrator, service providers, as required by law or court/tribunal order, or with your permission. Your PI may be accessed overseas by some of our service providers. A list of countries can be found at the URLs below. Our Privacy Policy details how to access and change your PI, as well as the privacy complaints process. For complete details on the above go to australiansuper.com/CollectionStatement and australiansuper.com/privacy or call us on 1300 300 273.

Important notes

- 1. If you withdraw your full account balance and your employer is still contributing to your account, your existing account will be closed. You will then be set up with a new account and member number, with new default insurance cover. This cover may be less than you have now and different terms and conditions may apply.
- 2. If your existing account is closed and a new super account opened, any cover you apply for in addition to your default cover will be limited cover for at least two years and you may need to provide detailed health information.
- 3. Investment earnings, tax, insurance and management costs will change the final amount paid.

Please complete in pen using CAPITAL letters and print X to mark boxes. You should read the Privacy Collection Statement on this form to see how AustralianSuper uses your personal information.
